

[Genoa, Cayuga Co. NY]

—The Universalist church society, of Genoa, has been pronounced dead by the courts and the trustees directed to turn over to the state society the property, consisting of $200 cash and a small plot of land.

Cape Vincent Eagle, Cape Vincent NY, Thu. 1 Dec 1910

CATHOLIC CHURCH IN GENOA
Bishop Hickey Purchases Building Abandoned by Universalists

Bishop Thomas F. Hickey of the Diocese of Rochester has purchased the building abandoned by the First Universalist Society of Genoa and the building will be repaired and remodeled and made into a substantial church. Rev. J. B. Doran will also have charge of the church in Genoa when completed.

Weekly Bulletin, Auburn NY, Fri. 27 Jan 1911

Transcribed on 16 Apr 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY