

[Boorn, George C.]

Cooperstown—The Rev. George C. Boorn, 73, of 36 Elm St., a Universalist Clergyman 50 years, died yesterday morning at his home after a long illness.

Mr. Boorn was born June 15, 1886, in Decatur, son of Elmer and Kate Huntington Boorn. He married Annie M. Jenkins June 30, 1914 in Redding, Mass.

He was a graduate of Adams, Mass., High School, Tufts University and Crane Theological Seminary, class of 1910. He was ordained in 1910.

He served at the Cooperstown Universalist Church from 1924 until 1929. He had other pastorates in New York, New England and Pennsylvania.

From 1936 until 1943, he was minister and social service director at Inman's Chapel in Western North Carolina. He retired in 1957. He had lived in Cooperstown since and has been preaching at the Old Stone Church, Schuyler Lake.

He was a member of the Rural Lodge 29, F&AM, Rochester, Vt., [and] Otsego Chapter 26 RAM, Cooperstown. He was past patron of Primrose Chapter 83, Hop Bottom, Pa.

Besides his wife, he leaves a foster daughter, Mrs. Hugh C. Rogers of Fairborn, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Eloise H. Boorn of Oneonta; several cousins.

The funeral will be at 2 Thursday from the Old Stone Church, Schuyler Lake, the Rev. John Edwin Price and the Rev. Frederick W. Connell officiating. Burial will be in Worcester, N.Y., later in the spring.

Masonic services will be at 8 tomorrow at Ingalls Funeral Home, by Otsego Lodge 138 F&AM.

Calling hours are 7 to 9 tomorrow.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Tue. 12 Apr 1960