

[McGlaughlin, William Henry]

Former Greenwood Pastor Died at Scranton, Penn.

The death of Rev. Wm. Henry McLauflin [McLaughlin], pastor of the Universalist church at Greenwood a number of years, died at his home in Scranton, Pa., March 8. He had been head of the Universalist church of America for some years. He also had served the Universalist churches at Cuba and Whitesville as pastor. He was held in high esteem by many in Greenwood.

He was pastor of John Raymond Memorial church in Scranton and death overtook him as he sat at his desk working on a sermon for the following Sunday.
