

[Youker, Evangeline Thompson]

St. Johnsville
Mrs. Youker Succumbs At Age 74

Mrs. Evageline [sic] Thompson Youker, 74, of St. Johnsville RD 2, died late Saturday night in Little Falls Hospital, where she had been a patient two weeks.

She was born in the Town of Manheim, Herkimer County, on Feb. 26, 1892, a daughter of Frank and Rhoda Barnes Thompson.

She was married to Roy H. Youker Sr. on Sept. 14, 1910 in Dolgeville. He died Sept. 23, 1962.

Mrs. Youker was a member of the First Universalist Church of Dolgeville.

The survivors include nine daughters: Mrs. Kenneth (Dorothy) Countryman of St. Johnsville; Mrs. Milburn (Rosalind) Murphy of Richland, Washington State; Mrs. John (Catherine) Timmerman of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. George (Lulu) Baltin of Buffalo; Mrs. Arnold (Beatrice) Paatz of Dolgeville; Mrs. Walter (Harma) Wagner, Mrs. Stanley (Frances) Humphrey and Mrs. Robert (Marion) Gray, all of St. Johnsville RD and Mrs. Joseph (Jean) Bryant of Perry, Okla.

Also two sons, Lawrence R. of Little Falls RD and Roy H. Youker Jr. of Dolgeville.

Three sisters, Mrs. Lulu Blossom of Dover, Mass., Mrs. Golda Satterly of St. Johnsville and Mrs. Marion Mickler of Albuquerque, N.M.

Two brothers, Harry and Howard Thompson of Stratford, 19 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, also nieces and nephews.

The Leader-Herald, Gloversville NY, Mon. 24 Oct 1966