

[Eaker, Maude Hart]

Mrs. Henry Eaker

Mrs. Maude Hart Eaker of 163 Church street, Little Falls, died at the Little Falls hospital Saturday morning. She had been ill the past four weeks, after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mrs. Eaker was born in Little Falls on March 22, 1884, the daughter of the late Lewis and Catherine Hundredpound Hart. She was married to Henry C. Eaker on August 3, 1910 in Little Falls by Rev. Mr. Cooper, then pastor of the First Baptist church, Little Falls. She had always resided in Little Falls.

Mrs. Eaker was a lady of gracious personality, and highly regarded by all who knew her. She was a member of St. Paul's Universalist church, Little falls, a member of its Class of the Friendly Heart, and a past president of the Association of Universalist Women.

Mrs. Eaker is survived by her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Garner Beck and Mrs. Alton Empie, both of Fort Plain, and Mrs. John McAllister, Mohawk; two sons Austin and Harold Eaker, both of Little Falls, eight grandchildren.

The funeral was held Monday at 2 p.m. from the Newitt funeral home, Little Falls, with Rev. Howard B. Gilman, pastor of St. Paul's Universalist church, officiating. The body was placed in Inghams Mills vault, to await burial there in the spring.
