

[Ellsworth, Sturkly]

DEATHS.

In Hartwick, Otsego county, very suddenly, STURKY ELLSWORTH, Esq., aged 67 years.

Few men have lived more respected or died more lamented than Br. Ellsworth. He enjoyed in an eminent degree the confidence of all who knew him, which has been evinced on several occasions, by placing him in the most important posts of honor and trust. He has held a seat in both branches of our State Legislature, with credit to himself and profit to his constituents. About twenty years since he embraced the faith of unlimited salvation, which, up to the time of his death, was his stay and support. Funeral sermon by the writer.

Within a few months, sister Ellsworth has been called to part with a daughter, a daughter-in-law, and now her husband...

The following just tribute of respect to Mrs. Chase (the daughter referred to) is copied from the "Milwaukee Advertiser." Mrs. C. was a Universalist in deed and in truth.

In this town, on the 5th inst., Mrs. JULIA ANN, wife of Dr. E. Chase, of Milwaukee. In the death of this woman the needy have lost a friend, society an ornament, and a husband an amiable and affectionate companion. She, with her husband, was among the first emigrants to Milwaukee. Enjoying but a few days since, health and prosperity, she saw happy prospects brightening around her; "but in the midst of life she was in death."

O. [Rev. Obadiah] Whiston [Universalist]

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 28 Apr 1837
[a Universalist newspaper]