Carl Erhardt, 69, Has Fatal Seizure

FORT PLAIN—Carl Erhardt, 69, died suddenly yesterday morning of a heart attack at his residence on Reid St., this village.

He was born March 14, 1891, in Fort Plain, the son of Henry and Catherine Wherle Erhardt. On Sept. 10, 1913 he was married to Laura Cole by the Rev. George Gay, pastor of the Fort Plain Universalist Church, of which Mr. Erhardt was a member.

For 25 years he was employed by the Bailey Knitting Mill of Fort Plain, and for 17 years worked at the Gilbert Knitting Mills. He retired from Beech-Nut Life Savers, Inc., in 1956, after 14 years of employment there.

Mr. Erhardt is survived by his wife, Fort Plain; one son, Paul, also of Fort Plain; one brother, Edwin Erhardt of Fort Plain; one granddaughter, Kim Elaine Erhardt, and one grandson, Paul Erhardt, both of Fort Plain, and nephews and cousins.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at the Gray funeral home in Fort Plain, the Rev. Raymond Scott, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. The body will be placed in the Catherine Nellis Chapel [vault] in Fort Plain Cemetery to await burial in the spring.
