

[Martin, Emeline Dennis]

Chapinville, N. Y.—The death of Mrs. Emeline Dennis Martin, wife of Jacob Martin, occurred at the family home on Friday morning. Mrs. Martin had been ill for two months with cancer of the stomach, and during that time she had been a great sufferer. The deceased came here in 1861 with her husband, who engaged in the manufacture of spokes and hubs. Mrs. Martin was born in China, Me., 76 years ago. When a young woman, she came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dennis, to Henrietta, and there, on Oct. 24, 1847, she married Mr. Martin. Besides her husband, she leaves one son, Edward D. Martin of Shortsville; two daughters, Miss N. Isabelle Martin of this place, and Mrs. R. N. Shumaker of Canandaigua; two brothers, Jacob Dennis of Chapinville, and Merton O. Dennis of Batavia; and two sisters, Mrs. Loring H. Brunson of East Bloomfield, and Mrs. David F. Smith of Shortsville. The funeral was largely attended from the home on Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. John Evans, pastor of the Clifton Springs Universalist Church, of which Mrs. Martin was a member, officiating. The remains were interred in the West Avenue cemetery, Canandaigua, beside a daughter, Mary Ida Martin, who died in 1866.
