

[Moreland, Harriet Daniels]

MRS. LEWIS MORELAND

Harriet Daniels, wife of Lewis Moreland, died at the family home in Mottville at an early hour Wednesday morning, March 17, 1915, in the 76th year of her age. She had been in poor health for several years.

Mrs. Moreland was the daughter of the late Ammon Daniels of Mottville. She was born in South Butler, Wayne county, May 25, 1839, and came to Mottville with her parents when a child. She was married September 26, 1856, at the home of her parents, by Rev. J. M. [John Mather] Austin of Auburn, N.Y. to Lewis Moreland of Sennett, and they have always lived in Mottville and vicinity with the exception of a year spent in Minnesota. Mrs. Moreland was devoted to her husband and children, a good neighbor, a kind friend and a consistent Christian. She was a member of the Universalist church.

She is survived by her husband and three children, two sons and a daughter, Willis J. Moreland of this village, Lester Moreland of Muncie, Ind., and Miss Nora Moreland of Mottville.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. A.[Arnold] S. Yantis of Auburn, were held at the family home at 2 p.m. to-day. Interment was made in the family plot in Lake View cemetery, Skaneateles.

Mrs. Moreland was cousin of Mrs. Dr. J. B. Kelsey of Marcellus, and Dr. Kelsey attended the funeral, Mrs. Kelsey not being able to go.
