

[Morse, Julia]

MRS. JULIA MORSE

Mrs. Julia Morse aged 68 years, wife of Truman Morse, died Sunday noon after an illness of a few days with kidney trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Morse resided on Church street with Mrs. Tuthill, a sister of Mr. Morse. Mrs. Morse has been nursing the sick in her neighborhood for several months past, as she appeared strong and healthy and quite a number of her neighbors have been ill. She was a kind-hearted, Christian woman, and esteemed by all who knew her. The funeral was on Tuesday at two p.m., and conducted by Rev. Jas. Taylor, as the deceased was a regular attendant at the Universalist church. A son arrived from the west on the day of the funeral.
