

[Mullett, Chilion¹]

DEATHS.

Suddenly and unexpectedly, in Darien, Genesee co., N.Y., March 25, much respected and lamented, Mr. CHILIAN MULLETT, aged 65 years. But although thus called away in the midst of his years and usefulness, from five fond sisters, and his brother, Hon. James Mullett, of Fredonia, they desire to be submissive to the will of Him who is too wise to err, and who permits no afflictions whatever to come upon us, that are not intended for our final good. The deceased, at the demise of his aged parents, some few years since, assumed the old homestead, and occupied the farm mansion with two of his fond sisters [Harriet and Huldah] where they dwelt together in the most friendly relations of brother and sisters; and he was to them a brother in deed and in truth. The writer endeavored to comfort the bereaved sisters, relatives and friends, by a discourse on the resurrection, from the words of our Saviour in St. John's Gospel, xi,23—"Thy brother shall rise again,"—assisted in the services by the Presbyterian clergyman of Pembroke.

T. J. W. [Thomas Jefferson Whitcomb]

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat. 11 Apr 1857
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 6 Feb 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY

¹ His name is spelled Chilion on his gravestone in the Allegany Road Cemetery, Darien NY.