

[Parker, Iva C. Hoskins]

Widow of Amasa J. Parker Dies

Mrs. Iva C. Parker, 30 Easterly Avenue, died shortly after noon today.

Mrs. Parker was the widow of Amasa J. Parker, for many years a well known Auburn attorney. She is survived by a brother, Harry M. Hoskins, of the same address.

Ill for several months, Mrs. Parker was admitted to Auburn City Hospital January 22, where she had remained ever since.

The body was transferred to Langham's Funeral Home, 91 East Genesee Street.

Mrs. Parker was born in Scipio Center. She was the daughter of the late William Hoskins and Jessie Miller Hoskins. She had been a resident of Auburn for the past 45 years.

Mrs. Parker was an active member of the Grange, and was chaplain of Auburn Grange at the time of her death. She was a former secretary of that organization and was a member of Cayuga Pomona Grange and a Seventh Degree member of the order. She was also a member of the Eastern Star Chapter at Scipio Center, and of the Cayuga County Home Bureau.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Langham Funeral Home, with the Rev. Fenwick H. Wheeler, pastor of the First Universalist Church of Auburn officiating. Burial will be in Genoa Cemetery.

Calling hours will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday and 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.
