

[Peck, Anna C. Burch]

MRS. FRED PECK

The death of Anna C. Burch, widow of the late Fred Peck, occurred at her home on Eagle street, at about midnight, Thursday of last week following an illness of long duration which reached a critical stage on the Monday preceding.

Mrs. Peck was born in the town of Springfield, September 12, 1889, the daughter of the late William H. Burch and Essie Cooper Burch and had been a resident of Cooperstown for the past twenty years. Her marriage to Mr. Peck took place March 30, 1910. His death took place three years ago last September. Mrs. Peck was a faithful member of the Universalist church and a woman held in the highest esteem by a wide circle of friends. Surviving are the mother above mentioned, one daughter, Myrtle, and one brother, Hiram A. Burch, all of Cooperstown.

The funeral was held at the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. George C. Boorn, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. C. E. Brown, pastor of the Baptist church. Interment in Lakewood cemetery.
