

[Perry, Jesse J.]

Attended Perry Funeral

Among the relatives and friends who attended the funeral of the late Jesse J. Perry, aged 89 years, 5 months and 13 days, held from the home, Feb'y. 16th, 1927 were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perry of Bradford, Pa.; Jesse Perry of Clarendon, Pa.; Carroll Richardson and family of Rock City, Pa.; Leo B. Richardson of Hornell; Nelson Waldron and family of Pembroke, N.Y.; John Noun, Dora Noun of Batavia.

Mr. Perry, who married Sarah Goodridge in 1862, spent most of his life in Independence and Willing townships save for two years at Bradford during the early oil excitement and a short time in Batavia. The couple had been married 65 years, which period had been spent on the homestead. Three [sic] children, Orsen C., at home and Sewall G. Perry of Clarendon, Pa., ten grand children as well as eighteen great grandchildren and the widow survive.

Rev. Mr. [R. S.] Kellerman of the Universalist Church officiated at the farewell service. Mr. Perry had always been an attendant of this church. Burial was in the family plot in Rural Cemetery.

Mr. Perry was one of those good, substantial farmer residents whose passing will be noticed for a long time.

Whitesville News, Whitesville NY, Thu. 24 Feb 1927

Transcribed on 23 Nov 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY