

[Pickard, Bertha Hamilton]

MRS. FLOYD PICKARD DIES IN HEPBURN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Bertha Hamilton Pickard, wife of Floyd Pickard, died at 12:30 Sunday afternoon in Hepburn, where she had been a patient about three weeks, suffering from a critical illness, caused from a poison gland condition. Funeral service will be held at 1 today from the Pickard home, 5 Pleasant Street, Rev. Emerson H. Lalone, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Hermon Cemetery.

Mrs. Pickard was born in Richville, April 18, 1880, the daughter of Nathaniel and Lucy Enos Hamilton. She was married at Hermon, Sept. 8, 1901, to Floyd Pickard. They lived at Hermon about ten years and then moved to Canton, where they have since resided. She was a member of the Universalist Church.

Remaining are her husband, daughter, Miss Bernice I. Pickard, a graduate of St. Lawrence University, 1929, brother, John Hamilton, Richville, and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Minnick, Pulaski, and Mrs. Ella Alguire, DePeyster.

Commercial Advertiser, Canton NY, Tue. 8 Sep 1936

Transcribed on 15 Jun 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY