

[Pierce, Gaylord]

HARTWICK.

CHRISTIAN HILL.—Mr. Gaylord Pierce, who died in this place the 26th ult., had lived for about 50 years on the farm where he died. He was a thoroughly honorable man, a kind husband and father, an obliging neighbor, and died respected by all who knew him. He leaves an aged wife [Phebe Caulkins Pierce], a son and daughter to mourn his loss. When in health he was a regular attendant at the Universalist church at Fly Creek. His funeral was held at his home June 28, Rev. L. H. Fisher of Cooperstown, officiating.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 10 Jul 1891

Transcribed on 27 Dec 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY