

[Pierce, Helen Albro]

Bristol, N. Y.—The death of Mrs. James Pierce, of this place, occurred on Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. V. R. Hurlbut, at Canandaigua, where she had been ill the past four weeks, having been taken suddenly ill while on a shopping trip to that city. Mrs. Helen Albro Pierce was a daughter of David and Jane Albro of Bristol. She went to live with Mr. and Mrs. Sardis Simmons at Richmond when 12 years of age, remaining there until married to James Pierce in Oct., 1879, and had since resided here. Seven children were born to them, Murray, who died in 1887; Mrs. Victor Hurlbut, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. William Keys and Elmer Pierce of Canandaigua; Mrs. Frank Gilbert of Bristol, and Carl Pierce of Ionia. She is also survived by her husband, 14 grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Byron Dawley of Canandaigua, and Mrs. C. F. Davis of Rochester. Mrs. Pierce was 58 years, 8 months and 14 days old. She attended the Universalist church here. There was a prayer at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hurlbut, on Sunday, by Rev. G. L. Morrill, and services at her late home at 2 o'clock, at which Rev. Flower officiated. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.
