

[Pike, Minnie Barnes]

Mrs. Minnie Pike

Mrs. Minnie B. Pike, a former Yonkers resident for 47 years, died Thursday at her home in Huntington, L. I. after a long illness. She was 86.

Mrs. Pike, who previously lived at 260 Valentine Lane, was born at Norwich, Conn., on July 23, 1884, to Chester and Emily Barnes. Her father was a state senator from Norwich.

A former teacher in Connecticut schools, she was married to Francis Pike for 62 years and was a member of the Universalist Church in Norwich. Mr. Pike predeceased her.

Mrs. Pike is survived by five sons and a daughter: Wallace N. of Middleton, N. J.; Chester L. of Malverne, L. I.; Kent and Robert Pike of Huntington and Bertrand of Yonkers, and Mrs. Mercer (Emily) Guerry of Malverne; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
