

[Post, Ellen W. Boughton]

Mrs. Ellen W. Post

Mrs. Ellen W. Post, widow of the late Wm. Post, of Silver Springs, died here at the home of her sister, Mrs. H.W. Hand, on East street Thursday, death resulting from a stroke of paralysis, on Sunday July 20th at noon, while Mrs. Post was attending a business meeting in the Universalist church.

Mrs. Post was born at Scipio, August 2, 1839, and resided in Silver Springs from 1866 until 1894, coming to this village thirteen years ago. She was an active member of the Universalist church and of the Woman's Relief Corps, and a valued member of the ladies' aid of the church.

One sister and two brothers survive: Mrs. H.W. Hand, of this village; Dr. Charles Boughton, of Chicago, and Geo. W. Boughton, of Victor, N.Y.

The funeral will be held at her late home this (Saturday) morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. E.P. Wood officiating and the remains will be taken to Silver Springs for burial. Those here to attend the funeral are Misses Nellie, Adele and Mary Chace, of Perry; Mrs. Effie Hitchcock of Silver Springs, and Geo. W. Boughton, of Victor.

The deceased was a woman of many fine attainments, admired and loved by all who knew her. Her death removes from this community a woman of exemplary character and the surviving relatives have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their bereavement.

Members of the Relief Corps will meet at the Episcopal church Saturday morning at 10:30 and attend the funeral in a body.
