

[Purdy, Phillip H.]

Victim of Stove Explosion Succumbs In Hospital

MIDDLEPORT, Dec. 19.—Phillip H. Purdy, 50, died Saturday at the Medina Memorial hospital, where he was taken two weeks ago following injuries sustained when a stove exploded in his home on Francis street. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Gordon [Eileen] Stuart of Buffalo; one brother, Harry Purdy of Middleport, one sister, Mrs. William Giles of Saginaw, Mich.

Mr. Purdy was born in Somerset, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John [Melvia Humphrey] Purdy. He spent most of his life in Middleport where he was a mason by trade.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home with burial at Mountain Ridge, Royalton. The Rev. Cliqord [Clifford] Stetson [Universalist] will officiate.
