

St. Lawrence Foundation for Theological Education
Application for CPE Stipend

In brief, the mission of the St. Lawrence Foundation for Theological Education is to support education on the graduate level for students preparing for the Unitarian Universalist ministry and for other religious vocations recognized by the Unitarian Universalist Association.

The Foundation seeks to aid students in aspirant status with the Unitarian Universalist Association by offering stipends to pay up to $750 tuition for one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (as required by the UUA) at an accredited CPE center. Tuition payments will be sent directly to CPE Centers so recipients must be committed to taking CPE at the center named and in the time frame specified.

In accordance with our mission, we aim “to perpetuate the heritage of the Theological School of St Lawrence University and to promote the Universalist values that institution was created to foster.” Therefore, upon completion of CPE, *each recipient is required to submit a brief reflection on the experience: What insights have you gleaned? How has the experience been transformative? How has your Universalist heritage contributed to, informed, inspired (and/or deterred from) your ministerial formation?

The Foundation’s funds are limited. Please do not apply for this stipend if you have other sources of funding or if you are able to cover the expense yourself.

We look forward to hearing from you and working together to fulfill the mission of our Foundation.
