

St. Lawrence Foundation for Theological Education Application for CPE Stipend

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the St. Lawrence Foundation for Theological Education is to support education on the graduate level for students preparing for the Unitarian Universalist ministry and for other religious vocations recognized by the Unitarian Universalist Association.

The St. Lawrence Foundation for Theological Education seeks to aid students for the Unitarian Universalist ministry by offering stipends to pay up to $1000 tuition for one unit of Clinical Pastoral Education at an accredited CPE center. The Foundation will send the tuition payment directly to the CPE Center by the end of the first week of CPE. Therefore, students who submit this application must be committed to taking CPE at the center named and in the time frames specified.

We look forward to hearing from you and working together to fulfill the mission of our Foundation.
