The legal organization of the Universalist Society of Corfu and Darien

This certifies that after the notices required by law & adjournments from time to time, on the 4th day of October 1881, a religious society was duly & legally organized by the election of five trustees divided into three classes, Henry Phelps one year, E. W. Sumner two years, George Thomas two years, A. K. Carrier three years, Ephriam Sumner three years. R. W. Kinne was elected Treasurer and John Lincoln Clerk. The society adopted the name of the Universalist Society of Corfu and Darien. The above facts are true. [I]n witness whereof we have set our hands and seals.
