

From "Religious Notices"

The Fourth Universalist Society of this City have recently called one of the most popular preachers of Boston, Rev. N. M. Gaylord, as pastor of their Society. This Society was formed by a few members of the Rev. Henry Blanchard's church of his city, on the first of April last. The success of this movement has far exceeded the expectations of its most earnest friends. From the interest now manifested, this Society bids fair to soon become one of the most flourishing in the city. They have also a flourishing Sabbath School of 150 scholars and 30 teachers, and a well-selected Library. The School holds its sessions every Sabbath at 2½ P.M. The success of this movement clearly shows the want of a Society of this denomination in the vicinity where they are now located.
