

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE
Services To-day

Rev. J.G. Bartholomew, of Roxbury, Mass., the new pastor of the Church of the Redeemer (Universalist), in Greene avenue, is creating quite a sensation in that section of Brooklyn. Large numbers of those who formerly contributed to swell Mr. Beecher's congregation now find sufficient intellectual food for Christian reflection in the discourses of Mr. Bartholomew to satisfy their most earnest desires. The usual morning and evening services will be held to-day. The subject in the evening will be, "What do we lack?"
