

[Prospect Heights Universalist Society]

A NEW CHURCH

Liberal Christianity on Prospect Heights

The Prospect Heights Universalist Mission having in the first month of its existence outgrown the rooms it has occupied, will to-morrow evening take possession of new quarters in Greenwood Hall, 431 Fifth avenue, near Ninth street. A sermon will be preached by the pastor of the Mission, Rev. James Taylor; subject, "The Gift of God." All friends of the cause are expected to be present at these dedication services. As soon as practicable the Fifth Universalist Society of Brooklyn will be legally organized from the material of the present Mission, and a Sunday school will be started. A general invitation is extended to liberal Christians in that section of the city to identify themselves with this movement.

Brooklyn Daily Eagle, New York NY, Sat. 5 Nov 1887

Transcribed on 31 Aug 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY