

Fulton, Oswego Co. NY

Rev. G. W. Skinner

Rev. G.[George] W. Skinner has been temporarily supplying the pulpit of the Universalist society in Fulton, N. Y., since the removal of their former pastor, Rev. J.[James] H. Tuttle, to Rochester. We learn that the brethren in Fulton have been so well pleased with Br. Skinner's labors, that they have employed him to continue his supply for a year from the 1st of April, inst.

The Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Saturday April 1, 1854

Rev. G. W. Skinner

Br. G. W. Skinner, having resigned his office as pastor of the Universalist Society in Fulton, N. Y., wishes his friends and correspondents to address him for the present at Auburn, N. Y. Br. Skinner is at liberty to locate with any of our Societies who are desirous of securing the services of a pastor.

The Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Saturday September 2, 1854

Fulton, N. Y.

In our last we inserted a brief note, stating that the Rev. G. W. Skinner, having resigned his office as pastor of the Universalist Society in Fulton, desired his correspondents to address him at Auburn, N.Y. We have since received a card from the Trustees of the Fulton Society, correcting the phraseology of our notice of Br. Skinner's removal. We supposed Br. Skinner's connection with the Fulton Society was dissolved by resignation on his part, and hence so expressed it; but the Trustees state that he did not resign, and that the dissolution was brought about in a different manner. We cannot, however, think it needful that a discussion of this matter should be brought before the public through our columns.

It gives us pleasure to learn that Br. [J. M.] Bailey, the present pastor, is making good impressions in Fulton. With the exercise of the christian virtues of forbearance and forgiveness in all parties, we are sanguine Br. B.'s labors there will be crowned with great success.

The Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Saturday September 9, 1854