

Pamelia, N.Y.

We are much pleased to learn from Br. A. [Asa] Saxe, that the Universalists in Pamelia, Jefferson co., where he has been preaching for some time, have just completed the organization of a new Society, composed of 46 members. This is a very encouraging indication of the prosperity of our cause in that section of the vineyard of the Lord. We trust the brethren in Pamelia will persevere in the good work they have commenced, until they furnish themselves with a commodius house of worship, in which they can meet to praise God, the Father of all.
