TO ACCOMMODATE SCHOOL CHILDREN
Many Buildings Rented

School accommodations for the 500 children who have been unable to pursue their studies since the opening of the school year, because of Mayor Wagner's refusal to approve of the $100,000 appropriation for new buildings, are now in sight, and will doubtless be provided within the next week or ten days...

[Commissioner Tozer] declared that if the city would rent the Second Universalist Church that all of the pupils at No. 6 could be cared for, and all given all day sessions. He moved that the church be rented, and the motion was finally carried.
