

[Alvord, Nellie Marie Bond]

ALVORD

Rev. Nellie B. Alvord, who at times supplied the pulpit in St. Paul's Universalist Church in Victor, died in Friendship, N.Y. on Nov. 27, 1843. She was born at Gaines, Dec. 27, 1872, the child of William and Esther Priddy Bond, studied at Westbrook Seminary, and took courses in music in Lockport and Rome, N.Y.

On December 2, 1891, she was married to the Rev. Otis F. Alvord, and on October 29, 1925, she was ordained. She never took a pulpit, but assisted her husband in his pastorates, which included the Universalist church in Bristol, and supplied pulpits at Lockport and in Sunburst, N. C., as well as in Victor. She is survived by her son, and by nieces and nephews.
