

[Butler, Stanard Dow]

SENECA CASTLE
Stanard Dow Butler, D.D.

Seneca Castle, Aug 20—Stanard Dow Butler, D.D., brother of Rev. B. F. Butler of Seneca Castle, died at the Deaconess Hospital, Buffalo, Saturday afternoon.

Services will be held in the Lankton Funeral Home, Utica, on Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Butler, before entering the ministry, was for many years an educator. He first taught at Oxbow, N.Y. Later he became principal of Bridgewater Academy and still later, principal of Clayville High School.

Entering the ministry, he was for fifteen years pastor of the Universalist Church of Middletown, N.Y., after which he was made pastor emeritus.

He then went to Florida and founded the United Liberal Church of St. Petersburg.

He was, for a number of years, pastor of the Church of the Reconciliation, Utica, and was serving that church as interim pastor at the time failing health caused him to retire. He then went to Seneca Castle to make his home with his brother.

He is survived by one brother, two nieces, Lena Butler of Morley, N.Y. and Mrs. Lois B. Estey of Seneca Castle, and one nephew, Stanard Morrison of Webster, N.Y.

Geneva Daily Times, Geneva NY, Mon. 20 Aug 1945

Transcribed on 15 Apr 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY