

[Conklin, Charles]

REV. DR. C. CONKLIN

Rev. Dr. Charles Conklin, a former pastor, of the First Liberal Church [Universalist] of Mount Vernon for a number of years, died yesterday in Canton, Mass. He was 74 years of age. Rev. Dr. Conklin had been an ordained minister of the Universalist Church since 1876, and had also held pastorates in Troy and Chicago. He was born in Nyack, N.Y. and was educated at St. Lawrence University and Lombard College. In 1902 he was made Superintendent of Universalist Churches in Massachusetts. He was secretary of the Massachusetts convention until 1914, when he became the minister of the Beacon Universalist Church in Brookline, Mass. Since 1914 he had been pastor of the Universalist church in Canton.

Daily Argus, Mount Vernon NY, Wed. 28 May 1930

Transcribed on 18 Oct 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY