

[East, Charles R.]

REV. C. R. EAST DIES IN FERRYHOUSE

The Rev. Charles R. East, formerly pastor of the Universalist Church of Good Tidings [Fourth Universalist], Stuyvesant avenue and Madison Street, Brooklyn, but of recent years President of a cocconut oil company, died in the Thirty-ninth Street ferry house, Manhattan, on Thursday, shortly after he was stricken with a hemorrhage while returning from a fishing trip. The body was identified by his sister, Miss Ida R. East, yesterday morning, who directed that it be taken to her home at 217 Madison Street, Brooklyn. The reason for this is the fact that Mrs. East gave birth to a baby only four days ago, and it was feared that she might not survive the shock. Mr. East was 41 years old and lived at 445 Forty-first Street, Brooklyn.

New York Times, New York NY, Sat. 24 Jul 1915

REV. CHARLES R. EAST BURIED AT READING, PA.

The body of the Rev. Charles R. East, formerly pastor of the Universalist Church of Good Tidings [Fourth Universalist], Stuyvesant avenue and Madison street, was buried to-day in the family plot at Reading, Pa., where he was born. Funeral services for Mr. East, who died suddenly in the Thirty-ninth street ferry house in Manhattan Thursday night, were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the chapel at St. Lefferts place, the Rev. Francis Gray, a Universalist minister, of Stamford, Conn., officiating.

Daily Standard Union, Brooklyn NY, Mon. 26 Jul 1915

Transcribed on 9 Mar 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY