

[Haynes, Harold W.]

H. W. HAYNES, FORMER CITY PASTOR, DIES

The Rev. Harold W. Haynes, 79, a former pastor of Binghamton's First Universalist Church, died last night in a Goffstown, N. H., hospital.

Mr. Haynes, who was residing in Goffstown at the time of his death, was pastor of the Binghamton church from 1931 to 1940, when he accepted a call to the First Universalist Church of Herkimer.

A native of Maine, Mr Haynes was graduated from Bowdoin College and St. Lawrence University Divinity School. He was a thirty-second degree Mason, and while in Binghamton, was at one time president of the Exchange Club. He also served several terms as president of the Cayuga-Chenango Universalist Association.

The former Binghamton pastor is survived by his son, Stephen Haynes, and a daughter, Carolyn Haynes, both of Goffstown. The funeral service for Mr. Haynes will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Goffstown.

Binghamton Press, Binghamton NY, Fri. 3 Jul 1953

REV. HAROLD W. HAYNES

The Rev Harold W. Haynes, 79, died at his home in Goffstown, N.H. on July 9. The Rev. Mr. Haynes will be remembered in Richfield Springs, where he lived for several years, as the husband of the late Elma Seckner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seckner, whom he married in 1944 [on 22 November].

He was a graduate of the Canton Theological school where he received his BD. Later he served as pastor of the Universalist church at Schuyler Lake and of the First Universalist church in Herkimer.

Mrs. Seckner [should be Mrs. Haynes], a cousin of Howard Shaul of this village, died about two years ago [on 29 July 1951].

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 16 Jul 1953