DEATHS.

In Richmond, Ontario county, Feb. 23d, at the house of his son, Mr. ALDIN ADAMS, in his 83d year. Also, in the same place, March 7th, Mrs. MARY ADAMS, consort of Aldin Adams, in her 90th year. The funeral of the former was attended at his late residence on Friday the 25th ult., and the latter just two weeks from that day, March 10th; and discourses were preached by Rev. O. Roberts to a numerous group of surviving relatives and neighbors. These aged parents had long professed the doctrine of Universalism and adorned their profession, thereby endearing themselves to a numerous family of children, and all their neighbors, through a long life. Everlasting peace be unto them, and all their surviving kindred.
