

[Adams, Jessie C. McLouth]

MRS. JESSE [sic] C. ADMS DIES IN FARMINGTON OCTOBER 19

The death of Mrs. Jessie C. Adams, a well-known resident of Farmington, occurred at her home on Tuesday, October 19. She was in her 79th year.

Mrs. Adams was a daughter of the late Marshall and Margaret Pratt McLouth and the influence of her beautiful Christian life will be felt in the community for a long time to come.

Mrs. Adams was a member of the Universalist Church of Macedon and of Eureka Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, also of Macedon. She had been a member of Farmington Grange for many years.

The survivors are one son, Vernon Adams, and one daughter, Mrs. Beverly Crowell, both of Farmington. Funeral services were held from her late home at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. John Bennett of Rochester. The remains were laid at rest in the Palmyra cemetery.

The Enterprise, Shortsville NY, Thu. 27 Oct 1937

Transcribed on 14 Oct 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY