

[Adams, Libbie Lake]

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

The remains of Mrs. Libbie Lake Adams, aged 75 years, a former resident of Richfield Springs, who died at her home in Rawlins, Wyoming several days ago, arrived in Fort Plain Jan 5th, and were taken to the Catherine Nellis Memorial Vault by B. Gray & Sons. Interment will be made in the Fort Plain Cemetery in the spring. She is survived by two brothers, W. W. Lake of Chicago Heights, and one brother of Rawlins, Wyoming. The deceased at one time taught school in the village of Nelliston.

Mrs. Adams was a resident of Richfield Springs years ago and was a cousin of Miss E. M. Brown of New Hartford. She lived in Warren Street and played the organ in the Universalist Church a number of years, when the sweet voice of Mrs. John Derthick was heard in the choir each Sunday. Among the warm personal friends of the deceased were Mrs. Annette Bloomfield and the late Mrs. John Gyer.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 10 Jan 1924

Transcribed on 5 Feb 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY