

[Aldous, Nettie Martin]

MRS. NETTIE MARTIN ALDOUS DIES IN COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

Mrs. Nettie Martin Aldous passed away Friday at Canton Community Hospital after an illness of about three weeks. Death followed a period of declining health.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the Russell B. Lawrence Funeral Home, the Rev. Edna P. Bruner, minister of the First Universalist Church of Canton and Dr. John Murray Atwood, dean of Canton Theological School, officiating. Burial was made at Evergreen.

Mrs. Aldous was born in the town of Pierrepont in March, 1865, daughter of John and Almira Judd Martin. Her home had ben in Canton for many years. Early in life she married Henry Aldous of Canton. The home had been on their farm on the Brick Chapel Road until his death twelve years ago.

She leaves one sister, Mrs. Amelia McGilvary of Canton and a brother, Irwin S. Martin of Brooklyn. She was a member of the Universalist Church and of Silas Wright Grange.

Commercial Advertiser, Canton NY, Tue. 5 Jun 1945

Transcribed on 6 Sep 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY