

[Allen, Jordan]

MONTICELLO

Jordan Allen, one of our aged and esteemed citizens, died Wednesday morning. Mr. Allen has lived a quiet life of nearly eighty years on the Allen homestead. Three sisters and two brothers spent a happy peaceful home life with each other and their books in the dear old home. One sister only now remains there, Miss Lydia Allen, and she has our sincere sympathy. His nephew, Arthur Allen, is living with her. She has two sisters living, Mrs. Willis Perkins and Mrs. Myranda Brown, and a brother, Henry Allen.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 17 Mar 1898

MOTICELLO

Rev. S. [Samuel] R. Ward [Universalist] officiated at the funeral services of Jordan Allen, [on] Friday last. He was laid to rest in the family burying ground, on a picturesque knoll by the Hyder Creek, a beautiful spot chosen by his revolutionary ancestor.

Richfield Springs Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 24 Mar 1898