

[Allen, Judith A. Blaisdell]

On Saturday morning of last week occurred the death of Mrs. Judith A. Allen at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lyman S. Bowerman, in the town of Farmington. Mrs. Allen succumbed to an attack of pneumonia after an illness of but a few days. She was born in Galen, Wayne county, N. Y., October 14th, 1829, and was the daughter of Stephen Allen and Laura Blaisdell, being the last survivor of their family of seven children. On July 4th, 1857, while residing in Carlton, Orleans county, she married Lewis F. Allen, a brother of Hon. E. G. Allen of Farmington. Six children were born to them, of whom Mrs. Bowerman is the only survivor. Mr. Allen died in September, 1873, also of typhoid pneumonia. Mrs. Allen united with the Universalist church of Macedon in 1874, at which time she was a resident of that village. She was a woman of many beautiful graces of character and enjoyed the affection and respect of a large circle of friends. Funeral services were held at the Bowerman home on Monday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Donald Frazier of Macedon. Interment was made in the M. E. cemetery.

Victor Herald, Victor NY, Fri. 25 May 1906

Transcribed on 29 Jul 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY