

[Allen, Laura Chiler]

LAURA C. ALLEN

Laura C. Allen, born June 28, 1911 in Central Square, died January 11, 1968 in Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester, of a heart ailment.

She leaves her husband, Stanley E. Allen, and two daughters, Jane and Betsy, all of Baker Road, Churchville. She also leaves several cousins.

The former Laura Chiler was a 1928 graduate of Central Square High School. In 1932, she graduated from the Nursing School of Syracuse General Hospital. She was married to Stanley Allen on October 12, 1934 and they lived in Central Square until 1953 when they moved to Caledonia. For many years, she was an active Girl Scout Leader; she also belonged to the Order of the Eastern Star and the Lockard Baldeck Group of Mumford Presbyterian Church. She attended the Universalist Church in Rochester.

One of her favorite pastimes was playing cards; she was also a great lover of nature.

For the last year she has been a successful representative of Avon Products.

Friend called at the Alhart Funeral Home in Caledonia where services were held on Monday, Rev. John Brigham of the Universalist Church officiating. A committal service was held Tuesday at the Traub Funeral Home in Central Square. Friends may contribute to the Heart Fund in her memory.
