

[Alvord, Maude Zarley]

Mrs. Francis Alvord

Mrs. Maude Zarley Alvord, 79, of Friendship, wife of Francis M. Alvord, died Wednesday morning, June 17, 1964, in Cuba Memorial Hospital, after a long illness.

She was born in Joliet, Ill., in February, 1885, the daughter of James C. and Ida Patrick Zarley. She was married to Mr. Alvord at Joliet on January 16, 1907.

Survivors, besides her husband, are a daughter, Mrs. Louise A. Willman, of Ithaca; two granddaughters, and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Alvord was a member of the Universalist Church and belonged to Duncan Chapter, OES, No. 195, and to the Traveler's Club.

Weekly Dispatch, Belmont NY, Thu. 25 Jun 1964

Mrs. Francis Alvord

The Rev. Martz Snyder of Lambertville, N.J. conducted the funeral services for Maude Zarley Alvord, of Friendship, last Friday at the Davis Funeral Home here. Mrs. Alvord died last week at Cuba Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Born Feb. 19, 1885 at Joliet, Ill., she was the daughter of James C. and Ida Patrick Zarley. She was married to Francis Alvord, for many years supervisor of Friendship, in 1907.

Mrs. Alvord was a member of [the] Universalist Church, of Duncan Chapter, O.E.S., of Friendship, and the local Travelers Club.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are one daughter, Mrs. H. A. Willman of Ithaca; two grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Burial was made in Maple Grove Cemetery.

Friendship Volunteer, Friendship NY, Thu. 25 Jun 1964