

[Ames, Phoebe Lawyer]

MRS. PHOEBE AMES

On Monday evening at her home, near Edwardsville, occurred the death of Mrs. Phoebe Ames, the daughter of Washington and Catherine Lawyer, at the age of 64, of acute bronchitis and heart trouble. She was beloved by all her neighbors and relatives. All pronounced her to be happy, cheerful and patient in all her suffering, and in her dealings with others was just [and] honest and clung tenaciously to the right. In sickness she was the first to lend the helping hand, and her ministrations were tender and loving always. Her advice was timely and accurate ever. None knew her but to love her, spoke all her friends. The funeral service was held at her late home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Adelbert E. Allison, pastor of the Universalist church of this city, and of which church the deceased was a member. She leaves three sisters and two brothers besides two sons, Charles and Gilbert, to mourn her loss. The entire community extend to the bereaved family their sympathy and condolence.

The sons wish to thank all friends and neighbors for the kindness shown their mother and themselves during her illness and death.

Ogdensburg Weekly Journal, Ogdensburg NY, Wed. 19 Feb 1908

Transcribed on 26 May 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY