

[Anderson, Clara S.]

Kirkland

The funeral of Miss Clara S. Anderson was held from the Universalist Church yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance. Rev. George Adams of Alton, a former pastor in the Universalist church, officiated, and his brief but appropriate remarks were attentively listened to. At the request of the deceased, two selections, "Not Ashamed of Jesus," and "When the Mists Have Cleared Away," were very sweetly rendered by Miss Emma A. Kennedy. The floral tributes were very beautiful. The bearers were Stephen B. Latham of Clinton, Edward Comstock of Westmoreland, George Bishop of Deansville and William Anderson of Utica. The remains were laid at rest in the Clinton cemetery.
