

[Andrews, Harriet Burnham]

MRS. WILLIAM A. ANDREWS

Her Death at the Summer Home Near Corfu of Her Daughter, Mrs. Tabor

CORFU, July 31.—Mrs. Harriet Andrews, widow of William A. Andrews, died at 9 o'clock last evening at the summer home near this village of her daughter, Mrs. Charles S. Tabor of Buffalo, the wife of former Attorney General Tabor, who is her only surviving relative.

Mrs. Andrews, whose maiden name was Burnham, was born in Vermont on February 13, 1822, but her parents moved to Darien when she was a child and all her life since had been spent in Genesee and Erie counties. The funeral will be held at Mrs. Tabor's home at 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday, the Rev. Harry Wright [Universalist] of this place officiating, and the burial will be in Evergreen Hill cemetery.
