WEBSTER

Mrs. Jessie Collins Andrews, aged 28 years, died Saturday morning, Oct. 23, at her home in Rochester after a brief illness. Mrs. Andrews was well known in Webster where her childhood days were spent and her education completed; here, also, took place her marriage to James Andrews. Mrs. Andrews was of a lovable disposition and had won many friends. She was always sympathetic and helpful to those about her. The funeral was held from the Universalist church of Webster of which she was a member. The services were conducted by Rev. Harry Wright of Batavia and Rev. C. A. Simmons, pastor of the Webster church. Mrs. Andrews is survived by her husband and a little four-year-old daughter, Maxine; her father, Melvin Collins; two brothers, Dr. Frank and George; three sisters, Alice, Edna and Marguerite. To them, in their deep sorrow, is extended the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.
