

[Andrews, Sherlock]

Sherlock Andrews, brother of Hon. John T. Andrews, died at his home in Starkey, Dec. 18th, at the age of seventy-seven. His father, Ichabod Andrews, settled in Reading in 1813, and died there at the age of seventy-three in 1840. The son, Sherlock, after his marriage with Pamela Thomas in 1821, settled on a portion of the paternal homestead, and remained there some years, serving as Supervisor and in other official positions in Reading. He afterwards sold his place in that town and moved into Starkey, one mile north of his previous home, where he has since resided. His wife survives him, as do two sons and two daughters, one of the latter as the wife of Hiland G. Wolcott, Esq. He was a man of good sense and an exemplary citizen; religiously a Universalist.

Yates County Chronicle, Penn Yan NY, Sun. 2 Jan 1873

Transcribed on 9 Apr 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY