

[Andrus, Beecher Britt]

B. Britt Andrus

Beecher Britt Andrus, a lifelong and highly respected resident of this vicinity, passed away at his home in Clarendon Thursday morning, July 31, 1941, aged eighty-two years.

He was born in the Town of Clarendon on October 30, 1858, a son of Enoch and Abigail Davis Andrus and a grandson of Jacob Andrus, a native of Massachusetts who came from Oneida County to Clarendon in 1814.

On December 11, 1879, he was united in marriage to Miss Ella Wetherbee, also of Clarendon, who passed away on September 15, 1929. On December 12, 1934, he was married to Mrs. Fannie Steele Glidden, whose death occurred on April 6, 1939.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Earle D. Smith of 263 Sherwood Avenue, Rochester and Mrs. Herbert Salisbury of Terre Haute, Indiana; four grandchildren, Harland Smith of Rochester, Paul D. Smith of New York and Neil and Ella Elizabeth Salisbury of Terre Haute; and one nephew, Lewis E. Munger of Holley.

Mr. Andrus was a lifelong and active member of the Universalist Church of Clarendon.

For many years he was connected with the Deering Harvester Company.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Charles Clare Blauvelt of Pasadena, California, formerly a pastor of the First Universalist Church of Rochester, New York. Burial at Hillside Cemetery.
