

[Archer, Emily Ermina Miller]

Funeral of Mrs. Emily Archer

Hopewell Center, N. Y.—The funeral of Mrs. Emily Archer was held from her late home on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. R. D. Sumner Wilson, pastor of the Universalist church of Clifton Springs officiated, with interment in Chapman Cemetery. The death of Mrs. Archer occurred on Saturday at her home on the Orleans road after a long illness. The deceased was 87 years old and was the widow of the late Jonas Archer. One daughter survives, Miss Adda Archer, who resides at home.

Daily Times, Geneva NY, Thu. 13 Jun 1918

Mrs. Emily Archer

Mrs. Emily Archer, more than 86 years of age, a lifelong resident of the town of Hopewell and long prominent in her neighborhood, died at her home a few miles south of this village Saturday afternoon.

She was the widow of Jonas Archer, one of the pioneers of Hopewell who passed away several years ago. She is survived by a daughter, one son having been killed many years ago.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon, Rev. D. S. Willson, pastor of the Universalist church in Clifton Springs, officiating.

Clifton Springs Press, Clifton Springs NY, Thu. 13 Jun 1918