

[Arnold, Charles H.]

Death of Charles H. Arnold

Charles H. Arnold, an old and honored resident of the town of Manheim, died at his home on the Burwell road this morning of paralysis. His age was 69 years and seven months. Mr. Arnold was a carpenter by trade and a man of great industry and strict integrity. In politics he was a Democrat and was once a candidate for Supervisor, but was defeated. For several years he had been in feeble health. He leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Sydney O. [Jeanette] Ransom, of Dolgeville, and Mrs. John [Martha] Petrie, of Manheim. The funeral will be held from his late residence in Manheim on Sunday at 2 P.M. Rev. R. E. [Richard Eddy] Sykes [Universalist] will officiate.
